

Indiana's Telephone Privacy law should not be messed with.
I now receive virtually NO telephone solicitations. Prior to being on the "no call" list, I was pestered day and night by solicitors.
My home is now more peaceful and my time at home is more productive not having to answer the phone for solicitations.